rocky, so they had better farming land at the new place. The mother and grandmother, Lucy Ann died July 24, 1903.

Jim and Mattie's children were Freddie Franklin Gordin born May 28, 1887. He served his country in France in World War I. He was an ordained minister in the Church of God. After his return from the occupation forces in Germany, he attended the Church of God's College in Anderson, Ind. where he met and married Miss Maggie V. Alderman. They pastored many churches in Mississippi, Louisiana, and south Arkansas. Their children were Alfred R. Gordin, Mildred R. Gordin and Earl R. Gordin. Fred Gordin died December 18, 1966. Maggie Gordin still lives, in July 1985, near Shreveport, La. near her daughter.

The second child was a daughter, Tina Loucille Gordin, born May 28, 1890. She married Jesse Miller from Winston County, where they lived, October 24, 1909. They had one son, James Hilliary Miller, born October 24, 1911. Loucille died May 16, 1930.

The third child was Maggie Mai Gordin born January 12, 1892. She married Brant Scott. They are listed separately under Brantly H. Scott and Maggie Mai Gordin.

Mattie Gordin sold her place to Brant and Mai Scott a few months after their marriage in 1913.

Theirs was truly "the friendly little house by the side of the road." The well was right beside the road. The house was at a fork in the road where people traveled from Attala County, French Camp, Huntsville and Old Bankston on this road that was the most direct route to Vaiden, or Shongalo as the Trading Post was called before the railroad was brought through. Many travelers stopped to rest and get water for themselves and their horses or oxen. And many times they spent the night, if the day was well spent when they came by.

I can remember when I was three years old, a man the family knew stopped and was invited to spend the night.

As usual enough food was cooked in the morning to last for dinner and supper. A big biscuit pudding had been made that morning and instructions given that there would be no eating between meals so there would be enough for supper. That night, eating with the coal oil lamp in the middle of the table the grownups talked and talked about things I did not understand. I thought they would never get to the pudding. Finally when the guest was invited to have some pudding, he took the pan and dipped so many times before putting the pan down, I popped up on the bench between Daddy and Mama and leaned over to see if there was any left. A good yank of the dress tail brought me back down.

Another time we had an overnight visitor mama and her mother hurriedly made hot biscuits, fried middlin' meat (slab bacon) and scrambled eggs to add to the food left from dinner. I had finished eating and was about to fall asleep when mama said, "Mr. So and So, won't you have something else?" He said, "I believe I will. I'll have some more of the fry." Up I popped again to see what I had missed. Daddy just passed the middlin'.

can Republic. He was born in the Ashpole Swamp community of Robeson Co., N.C. He died June 23rd, 1893 and is buried in the Dido community cemetery of Tarrant Co., Texas. He is buried with many old Carroll Co. residents including Reuben and Susan Baskin, Tom and Susan Gary, and his daughter, Mattie Grantham Harmon, wife of Ira Doke Harmon.

John D's father was Stephen Grantham (1790-1858). His mother was Celia Grimsley (1792-).

In the Grantham family lineage, John D's immigrant ancestor was "Old Edward" Grantham who came to Surry Co, VA from Lincolnshire England in about 1669. He and wife Mary developed the tobacco plantation of "Granthams Reeds", located on Cypress Swamp. He died in 1704.

Old Edward had a son, also named Edward, who grew up at Cypress Swamp, married Catherine and had a family including four sons: William, Joshua, James and Edward. He passed away about 1768. This third generation Edward (in America) was a militia soldier of the American Revolution and the father of Josiah Grantham. This last mentioned Edward died in 1811. Josiah was a resident of Ashpole Swamp community and the father of Stephen Grantham. Several of Stephen's children and his widow later migrated to Carroll Co MS.

Edward Grantham (d 1811) had a brother, James, who parented Richard Grantham, Sr. Richard lived in Dobbs County NC, then moved to Ashpole Swamp. Richard, Sr. parented Richard, Jr. who with his wife, Elizabeth, reared a family of 13 children. Richard, Jr.'s son, Thomas Jefferson Grantham, came to Carroll County MS in the 1830's after migrating with two brothers to Perry Co. MS. The two brothers were Daniel and Richard, called "Lucky" or Dick. Thomas Grantham and wife Lydia reared their family near Winona, MS. One son of Thomas, named Andrew Jackson ("Jack") Grantham, was born in 1830, reared near Winona, and married Elizabeth Frances Herring on May 6th, 1849 — probably at Carrollton. After rearing 13 children near Winona, "Jack" Grantham relocated his whole family to the Loving Valley area of Texas in 1877.

Evander's daughter Linda married John Wilson Smith and did live in Money, MS. She was very enthusiastic about her family and was in attendance at Bluff Springs Cemetery annual reunions. "Aunt" Linda lived almost a century. John Wilson Smith's sister, Mary Virginia, married Daniel Robert Long, son of Caroline Grantham Daniels Long.

Evander's son, Watkins Turner Grantham, was very helpful to Joe Powell Grantham when he was researching the Grantham family history. Joe Powell Grantham was a son of John D. Grantham, Jr. Watt Grantham lived in Greenville.

In the Grimsley family lineage, Celia Grimsley's immigrant ancestors were from England. They settled in Colonial Virginia a century before the Revolution. Celia's father, George Grimsley, served in the North Carolina Volunteer Militia during the Revolutionary War.

Stephen Grantham's family home in Ashpole Swamp was still standing in 1968 on the north side of HY 904 near the intersection with Hy 41. Here John D. probably lived to adulthood. The family was in the turpentine business — the production of "Naval Stores" from the surrounding pine forests.

In 1831, Stephen helped charter the new Bear Swamp Baptist Church across the state line in Lake View, S.C.

Stephen and Celia reared a family of 12: Owen (b1813), Elias (b1816), Evan (b1820), John D. (b1825), Daniel (b1833), and daughters Elizabeth (b1817), Comfort (b1822), Obedience (b1824), Martha (b1830), Nancy (b1832), Caroline (b1835) and Catherine (b1838).

John D. migrated to Mississippi by 1850 and managed the farm of West Gary and Betsy Steadman Gary who are natives of Kentucky, now living near Duck Hill and Middleton.

West Gary's parents, John Gary (1765-1848) and Jennie Wadlington Gary (1772-1839) came to Middleton in 1832 from Madison County, Ms.

Young John Gary served in the Army Commissary Department during the Revolution (per Ethel Speer Updike).

Evan Grantham, John D.'s elder brother, came to Carroll County about 1842. He acquired a large farm adjacent to Mary Baskin at Bluff Springs. When he died in 1861, he willed 1¼ sections of land. He married Hartwell Eskridge in 1847. She was the widow of Samuel B. Eskridge and the mother of Sarah Rebecca, Richard, Thomas and Robert Eskridge.

Evan and Hartwell had one son of their own — Stephen Harris ("Harry") Grantham. Harry and his cousin, Evander probably grew up together. When Evander went with Co. A, 1st Mississippi Cavalry, CSA — Harry went too. Harry later married Laura Eugenia Stovall, daughter of David and Mary Neal Stovall, migrated to Texas and became an Assistant Attorney General of Texas. At Harry's death in 1894 in Dallas, Walter Stovall M.D., a native of Carroll Co, signed his death certificate. After Evander Grantham and W.E. Hamilton attested to Harry's CSA service, Eugenia was granted a widow's pension by the state of Texas.

John D. made the acquaintance of the Eskridge family — including Sarah Rebecca. He married Sarah Rebecca on September 6th, 1851.

Sarah Rebecca's lineage goes back to Colonial Virginia, to George Eskridge of Sandy Point, VA. Colonel Eskridge was the Burgess from Westmoreland Co. and was the guardian of George Washington's mother.

In time John D. acquired lands west of Duck Hill and went into farming on his own. He and Sarah Rebecca started their family with Anna (1854), Mattie (1855) and Ella (1856).

In the neighborhood lived Albert McNeill and Mary Tabitha Eskridge, Neil McNeill, Maria McNeill, James Cooper Weed and Savannah R. Eskridge, Doctor Hudgins and a teacher, Millie Thompson.

In 1858, John Daniel and his wife, Caroline arrived and acquired land near the McNeill's. Caroline is John D.'s sister. Next May 20th little Kate Daniel was born at Duck Hill. After Stephen died in N.C., the widow Celia and her children: Elizabeth with son Evander, Comfort, and Daniel came to Bluff Springs to live with Evan and Hartwell.

John D.'s fourth child was son Stephen (1857), then came Samuel (1860) and John D., Jr. (1862). With six children at home the War became more demanding. Among other, John Daniel volunteers and serves three years in the Fifteenth Mississippi Infantry. The grim battle of Franklin, Tenn. is John's last — he does not return. John D. served the cause, but did return.

Sallie was born in 1868, Wilson in 1870, Joe in 1872 and David in 1874. It is written that Joe and David were in the army during the Spanish-American War.

Caroline met returning veteran Robert Marshall Long of Bluff Springs and they were married on April 16th, 1866. They went to live in Water Valley. By 1870, Hartwell has come to Duck Hill to live with Sarah Rebecca and the grandchildren.

In time the older girls married and left home. Anna married Judge McQueen, Mattie married Ira Doke Harmon, Sr. and Ella married James Thomas Baskin, Sr.

John D. moved to Bluff Springs to live on the Grantham farm there. Daniel Grantham was killed in an accident and reconstruction times were generally poor. The family came together. The Grantham home at Bluff Springs is remembered by Robert Lee Long: "It was a 2-story, long rectangular log house with a wide parlor and stairs leading to two bedrooms upstairs." the home was still standing in 1968.

Yellow Fever hit Water Valley in 1878 and Robert Marshall Long's father, Judge Robert A. Long was a victim. Robert and Caroline, with Aunt Johnnie, Daniel Robert, and William took refuge with John D. at Bluff Springs. Daughter Kate Daniels had married William Harmon Baskin in 1876 and is living at Bluff Springs with her 1-year-old daughter, Carrie Lee Baskin. William Harmon's father, Tom Baskin owns the farm east of the Grantham place.

"Jack" Grantham had moved his family to Mineral Wells, Texas in 1877 and Reuben Baskin (Tom's brother) had moved his family to Fort Worth in 1879; so in 1882 John D. decided to move. John D. passed the farm to his sister Caroline and Robert M. Long, then moved to the Fort Worth area, settling in the Dido-Newark vicinity. Joe Powell Grantham states that Stephen, Samuel, John D., Jr. and Ella G. Baskin stayed in Miss. when the rest of the family moved.

The John D. family found Dido populated with acquaintance from home. Reuben and Susan Baskin had a family ranch east of Dido. Thomas J. Gary, who married Mary Susan Brown back at Middleton, has brought his family. Tom is the son of Marvel M. Gary, brother of West Gary.

The Herrings are father West, above Weatherford and Mineral Wells. The "Jack" Grantham family settled above Mineral Wells near Rock Creek church.

John D. lived 25 years in N.C., 33 years in Miss. — then eleven years in Texas. He passed away on June 23rd, 1893, and is buried in Dido cemetery under shady oak trees. His marker is chest high, very much weathered, and with the bible on its crest. Nearby is the grave of Mattie Grantham Harmon and Ira Doke Harmon. A little farther away are Reuben Baskin and Susan Works Baskin.

Following the death of John D., the family moved on. Anna and Judge McQueen lived at Hugo, Okla. Mattie lived on a farm near Sanger, Texas. Sallie Grantham Smart lived on a farm near Tipton, Texas. Samuel later moved to Texas and lived at Grand Prairie. Wilson, Joe and David later lived in Oklahoma City. Sarah Rebecca returned to Mississippi. In 1900 (census) she was in Yavoo City.

Contributor's Note: Information has been gathered from many members of the of Ridge-land, MS. extended family; primarily Jack C. Grantham, Jr. of Dallas, Robert Lee Long (now deceased), Robert Lee Long III of Monteagle Tennessee; and Mr. William (Billy) Baskin

GREENLEE, EARL PRICE

F285

Franklin E. Greenlee, son of John Read Greenlee, resided in the Eupora and Greensboro area.

Peter Greenlees, the son of William and possibly Elizabeth Greenlees, was born about 1745 or earlier in the Passapatanzy area of Stafford Co. (now King George Co.) Virginia.

Peter Greenlees served as the overseer on Ferry Farm, the home of Mary (Ball) Washington, the mother of George Washington in the year 1768.

By 1773, Peter Greenlees moved from Stafford County to Fauquier Co., Virginia, where he became the overseer for William Allason's estate, 'North Wales'. In 1775, he purchased land there and was taxed for nine slaves. About 1786 or 1787, he removed from Fauquier Co. to that part of the Pendleton district of South Carolina which became Anderson Co. in 1826. Peter Greenlees and his descendants adopted the spelling Greenlee while in South Carolina.

Peter Greenlee married Deborah (Willis?) and together raised a son, Lewis Willis, who married Nancy Long; son Shadrach, and a son John R. who married Nancy Hamilton. Peter died in Pendleton District, at least by Sept. 3, 1802, the date on which his will was proved.

Lewis Willis Greenlee, son of Peter and Deborah Greenlee married Nancy Long of

South Carolina, daughter of John Read Long and Sarah.

Lewis Willis left South Carolina and migrated to Mississippi. He and his wife Nancy raised a fine family of nine children. John Read was born April 9, 1801 and married Jane (Winter) Giles. Jane was born Jan. 17, 1801 and died April 30, 1878 in Mississippi. John Read Greenlee owned a plantation, about one hundred slaves, a large cotton gin, and other property in Greensboro, Miss. He also kept a country inn probably near the Trace. He was a Mason and a prominent citizen in the Greensboro Community. He belonged to the Cumberland Presbyterian Church and was a Whig in politics.

John Read and Jane Greenlee raised five sons and four daughters who all became outstanding members of their communities. Baylis Earl, born Aug. 1, 1824, married Martha Jane Baker. He eventually moved to Denton, Texas where he served as county sheriff. Andrew Jackson Greenlee was born May 22, 1826 and married Mary Ann Hubbard. Willis Riley, born April 14, 1828, married Claire Hope Smith, became an active member of the Moulton, Texas community. Louisa Caroline, born March 21, 1830, was married to John Pamplin. She died in 1882 near Greensboro, Ms. Francis M., who was born Jan. 13, 1832, married four times — Henry Bays, Franklin Williams, Ben Bigby, and Theophilus Norwood. Reid; she died June 1, 1877. Franklin's second wife was Lucretia Davis, the daughter of Allen and (—) Davis. Franklin resided at Walthall and later in Eupora, Ms. During his lifetime, he was a fierce Democrat and loyal Baptist. He enlisted in the Confederate army in April of 1862 and remained in service until April 1865. He worked as a merchant and a farmer most of his life and was also a teacher for a while. Franklin was the father of thirteen children.

Franklin and Eliza Greenlee had eight children. Alice, born April 18, 1857, married C.B. Lamb. Frances, born April 9, 1859, married J.G. Davis. Martha, born March 15, 1861, married A.G. McDowell. Lucretia Davis, daughter of Allen and (—) Davis was born Dec. 25, 1861 and died March 16, 1924. Lucretia was several years younger than Franklin when they married. The Davis brothers who married two of Franklin's daughters by Eliza Bays were Lucretia's brothers. When she married, she became her brothers' mother-in-law, her step-daughters' sister-in-law, and her nieces' and nephews' grandmother.

Franklin and Lucretia Greenlee had five children, four of whom lived to become productive members of their communities. Eva, born Oct. 29, 1881 and died in 1931, was married first to Andrew Carroll and second to John Posey. Andrew Jackson, born Feb. 2, 1883, died in infancy on Oct. 23, 1886. Earl Price, born Dec. 27, 1892, died Nov. 10, 1968. Earl Price married Mattie Etta Roe of Winona, Ms., Sept. 2, 1915.

Earl Price Greenlee, son of Franklin and Lucretia Davis Greenlee, was the youngest and last surviving child of that union at his death. He was a lifetime farmer and steward of the land, but did work for a while in the timber and sawmill business. He was an avid hunter and owned several hunting dogs but was particularly partial to bulldogs. He was a devout Baptist and Democrat. Sept. 2, 1915, Earl Price married Mattie Etta Roe. Hello all you Grantham hunters! I too have been trying to trace the Grantham line. Mine originated in N and S Carolina and before that possibly in England and Wales. The first one I can document lived in N Carolina before N and S Carolina became separate states. His name was Richard Grantham Sr., born ca. 1750, died ca. 1817. Wife's name was Sarah? Children were: Moses, Richard jr., Joseph, Joshua, Latitha, Tabitha, Sarah, Mary, Jane, Hannah, Nancy Ann, and Esther. Along about 1822-25, Richard jr., migrated down to Perry Co. Ms, with his guns, his dogs, and (it was discovered later) his wife and four sons. Some believe he also was accompanied by his brothers.? We do know that by 1825 he and wife, Elizabeth were residents of Perry Co. Ms. Their sons were Daniel, 1810-1859, Richard, 1811-1902, William, 1806-1899, and John, 1803-? Are you finding any connections? I'll dig up more from my jumbled files. Let me know if I've been any help.

LELA, WHAT A COINCIDENCE. MY GRANTHAMS WERE FROM THE SAME PLACE. AS PER THE 1790 CENSUS, RICHARD SR, JR AND MOSES ALL LIVED IN ROBESON COUNTY IN THE FAYETTE DISTRICT. UNFORTUNATELY I HAVE NOT BEEN ABLE TO TIE THEM WITH MY ANCESTER EDWARD GRANTHAM BORN 1771. IF YOU HAVE ANY LUCK LET ME KNOW
DAVID

Dear Ben & Leon,

I am sorry it has takes me this long to get back to you. I have tried to help with some of the names you sent to me:

471: Richard Grantham JR. Richard Jr. moved to Perry County about 1824, from Robeson County N.C. Richard father was Richard Sr. he never left N.C.

472: Richard Grantham III. he is the son of Richard Jr. and was also born in N.C.

466: Daniel Grantham. There is no JR. on this Daniel. He is the brother of Richard II.

(H.) Elizabeth. is the wife of Richard JR. she lived with Daniel after Richard died.

467: Ebenezer Grantham. is the son of Daniel Grantham that is married to Sally Slade. He is also the fore father of all the Grantham around Bush, Co. (they are no kin to me).

469: John Grantham. This is the brother of Daniel and Richard III he was also born in N.C.

I am sending a chart that I made. I think it will help a little.

I don't know anything about Matthew that you mentioned in your letter. He was in Mississippi long before Richard JR. got there.

If I can be of any help to you on the Mississippi Granthams, please let me know and I will do what I can to help.

Springs church scene of vows

OCEAN SPRINGS — Shari Ann Grantham and Michael Lee Pol were united in marriage on Dec. 29 at St. Alphonsus Catholic Church of Ocean Springs, with Monsignor James Hannon officiating.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H.H. Grantham of Ocean Springs, and the bridegroom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Lee Pol of Pascagoula.

A program of nuptial music was provided by Mrs. Paul Ellmer at the organ and vocal selections were offered by Ron Crosby and Lashunda Taulbee.

Escorted by her father, the bride wore a wedding dress designed and made by her mother and grandmother, Mrs. T.B. Pattillo. Fashioned of candlelight peau de soie the gown was re-embroidered with Alencon lace studded with seed pearls. The fitted bodice was designed with a wedding ring collar of the lace, a sheer yoke and sweetheart neckline. Appliques of the lace were repeated on the sheer sleeves, which were deeply cuffed with peau de soie, tapering to calla points at the wrists. The fully gathered skirt fell in soft folds to a chapel length train. A tiered fingertip veil of illusion was held in place by a cap of lace and pearls. She carried a Colonial bouquet of roses, baby's breath

Mr. and Mrs. Michael Lee Pol and ivy, tied with satin streamers.

Karen Chance of Lewisburg, W.Va., served her sister as matron of honor. Other attendants were Tina Sentell and Susan Grantham of Ocean Springs, and Gaye Grantham of New Orleans, all sisters of the bride, and Deanna Pol of Pascagoula, sister of the bridegroom. Flower girl was Christina Zala of Lewisburg.

The bridegroom was attended by his father as best man, and groomsmen were Johnnie Lockard, Joiner Mack Haltom, Chet Eselin and David Pol, all of Pascagoula. Ring bearer was Charles Sentell IV of Pascagoula.

A reception followed at St. Alphonsus Parish Hall. After a wedding trip to Destin, Fla., the couple are at home in Pascagoula.

17th Grantham Reunion...

JULY 24, 1998

Horton home is setting for early arrivals party at family reunion

Grantham family members gathered in the Eastern Arkansas area for the 17th annual reunion of the family of Robert Gentry Grantham and Tisha Anna Keith. Invitations imprinted over the image of the American flag beckoned family members to the reunion on June 27 and 28.

About 130 family members gathered in the Forrest City, Brinkley, and Wynne areas to share the fellowship of the family. They came from Iowa, Louisiana, Michigan, Mississippi, Texas, Tennessee, and all areas of Arkansas.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. John (Donna) Horton in Newcastle was the setting for the early arrivals party, a Family Ice Cream Supper on Saturday, June 27. American flag balloons greeted the guests as they arrived at the entry to the Horton Farms. The flag was also displayed by the entrance to the party area.

Visitors savored the delicious homemade ice creams in assorted flavors which were served with home baked cookies, brownies, cakes, and pies. The relatives spent their evening renewing kinships, meeting family members from across the United States, and enjoying the hospitality of the host family.

The Brinkley Convention Center was the setting for the big event of the reunion on June 28. Family members began arriving early to be a part of all activities of the day. The registration table held the American flag along with pictures of Robert Gentry Grantham, the family patriarch. Family history and picture books presented an interesting area for visiting and conversations.

The American flag was also placed at focal point as the traditional family worship service began. Group singing of oldtime gospel hymns was led by Roy Grantham Jr. of Crossett as Ms. Esther Wilson of Forrest City accompanied at the piano. Special music was presented by Ms. Angela Hamlett of Monroe, LA., Carla Baxter and Kimmie Mizell of Britney LeBouef of Pollok, TX. Mr. Grantham Jr. presented the sermon, his text being John: 9. At the service a special red rosebud arrangement was placed, and prayer was offered as a memorial to deceased family members.

Before the sumptuous potluck luncheon was served a prayer of blessing was offered by Rudy Grantham of Mt. Morris, Michigan. Family members then feasted on the bountiful specialties of the family cooks and on the fresh fruits and vegetables grown in this area.

After lunch, picture taking was in order and each family gathered for a group picture. Seventeen family members also posed for a special "first cousins" picture.

Very special guests at the '98 reunion came from Greenwood, Kosciusko, Enterprise, and Sallis in Mississippi. They were descendants of William Thomas Grantham and Mattie Keith, brother and sister to Robert Gentry and Tisha Anna Keith Grantham, and included Lewis, Sarah, and Paul Buford; Vernice Morgan; Eva and Arlis Herod; Dorelle and Caldwell Bishop.

Family members from out-of-state attending the reunion were Eddie and Dorothy Grantham of San Augustine, TX.; Randy and Veronica Rice, Heather Grantham, Britany LeBouef of Pollok, TX.; Christine Thomas of Hale Center, TX.; Laura Spencer of Plainview, TX.; Jerry, Dottie, and Jeri Ann Johnson of Memphis, TN.; Amy and Kyle Wooten of Georgia; Allison Carroll of Memphis, TN.; Josh and Teresa Johnson of Millington, TN.; Danny and Diane Grantham of Walls, MS.; Bobby, Teresa, Bobby Jr. with Amanda, and Michelle Johnson of Rossville, TN.; Charles, Gail, and April Crocker of Brighton, TN.; Diana and Angela Dover of Bartlett, TN.; Alfred and Joy Grantham of Henderson, TN.; Angela and Marty Hamlett and friend of Monroe, LA.; Joyce, Kenny, Ali, and Ian McKenzie and Jerry Floyd of Collierville, TN.; Rudy, Gail, and Jeff Grantham of Mt. Morris, MI.; Herndon and Jean Grantham of Sloan, IA.

Arkansas family members attending were:

Havis and Pete Grantham, Claude and Mary Johnson, Ollie, Nell, Owens, and Sibbie Sanders, Melissa Holland, Jimmy, Dorothy, Joe, Phyllis, and Daniel Grantham, Lucile Grantham, Lana Glover, Nancy Taylor, Anna Hudson, Henry, Mary, Desaray, Heather, and D.J. Hodges, Lyle, Charlotte, and Kent McConnell, all of Wynne;

Esther and James Wilson, John, Donna, and Baxter Horton, Stephanie, Nick, and Morgan Myers, Scottie, Danielle, Cory and Ethan Deere, all of Forrest City; Vernon and Jason Sanders, Dorothea and Sarah Boan of Jonesboro; Dora Hamlett, Ida Mae Kilpatrick, Brenda, Jacky, and Shaun Ford, Steve, Rita, Steven, and John Guest, all of Marvell; Bobby, Pam, and Shellie Graham of Holly Grove; Bill and Jane Brown of Heber Springs; Nellie Tubbs and Maxine Pannell of Hamburg; Betty Jo and Fred Ligon and Winston Sr. and Jeweline Guest of Marianna; Annette and Brandy Walton of Hot Springs; Jenene and Carrie Chamness of Little Rock; Ernest Grantham Jr. of Star City; Reena, Harvey, and Joey Brock of Bee Branch; Kimmie, Karajeane, and Christa Mizell, Robert, Patricia, and Carla Baxter of Gould; John Retherford and Ruby Jean Grantham of Dumas; Roy and Martha Grantham of Crossett.

Departing family members and guests expressed their desire to have the reunion in June of 1999 at the Brinkley Convention Center. They also expressed their gratitude at being able to gather once again to enjoy the family fellowship, wishing one another well until they meet again.

Dear Paul,

I enjoyed meeting you and your wife at the Grantham Reunion. I never dreamed that I'd be kin to you on my Mother's side of the family and kin to your wife on my Father's side of the family. You never know who you'll be kin to. My Mother said she remembered your parents and your sister.

At the reunion you asked about Attala Co. records and I said I thought the records had burned at one time. The courthouse burned in 1856. Attala Co. has land deeds, wills, and probate records from 1856 and marriage records from 1898. I don't know what happened to the marriage records from 1856 until 1898.

Has Dianne Varnes sent you a copy of the Howell Grantham data yet? I did not know which one of us she would send it to and I haven't received anything yet.

You mentioned a Susannah Grantham who married Jacob Guice. She was born 2 Jan 1789 in GA., the daughter of John Grantham and Mary Ann ?. She married first in GA. to Aaron Sheffield and had 2 children. This husband died c1808 while the family was moving from GA. to MS. In 1811 Jacob Guice, the son of Jonathan Guice and Ann Stump, married the widow Sheffield and they had 9 children. Susannah's brother, Ignatius Grantham, was found in 1820 Jackson Co., MS. He married Catherine Sheffield in 1810 but they were divorced before 1820.

At the reunion you were asking about Holmes Co. cemeteries. I have abstracts of these cemeteries if you need me to look for anyone: Bethesda, Pleasant Ridge, Spring Hill, Old Spring Hill, Eubank, and Siddon.

You also stated at the reunion that you thought our Thomas, Howell, and Benjamin might be the sons of a Thomas Grantham of Wayne Co., N.C. I have enclosed a sheet of thoughts on that. We may tie back to a Thomas, but I don't think it could possibly be to Thomas Sr. or Jr. of Wayne Co. It is interesting though that in a book written by some of the descendants of Thomas Grantham Sr. there was also a section in the book on Garrett's. The Garrett line was of Nicholas Garrett who was a planter in 1753 Fairfax Co., VA. He married a Mary and then died by 1795. It is thought that Nicholas had brothers named Edward and Joseph. Nicholas had 2 known children: Nancy Ann Garrett who married Timothy Carrington; and William Garrett who married May Lucas. The latter had a son named Thomas Lucas Garrett who married Susannah Simpson and they moved to Caswell Co., NC. Descendants of this couple eventually ended up in Ark. I can give you some more details on that line if you are interested. There doesn't appear to be a Grantham connection to this line.

I have enclosed all the family group sheets I have on the descendants of Thomas Jefferson Grantham. I also made a copy of just the first sheet of brothers Howell and Benjamin.

The Ammons name change data is enclosed since some people try to make out Thomas, Howell, and Benjamin out as the illegitimate children of Richard Jr. of Robeson Co., N.C. who moved to Perry Co., MS. where Thomas and a Matthew Grantham were already living. I think these children may have belonged to Richard Jr.'s sister, Sarah, who married Joshua Grantham Ammons (probably a cousin). This sister died by 1813 and it looks like something may have happened to her husband about the same time. It could be she died by 1807. Another sister of Richard Jr., Taletha, also married an Ammons.

I have enclosed copies of the correspondence that relates to your branch. I also enclosed that to a Mrs. Keith as I thought I remembered a Keith connection in your branch. She has supposedly done a lot of Grantham research, but never answered my letter. I heard she may have been in an accident or something.

Enclosed is an index for the Grantham MS. Civil War Confederates as well as abstract sheets for those who are of the Thomas Grantham line. The other Grantham descendants that appear in early Hdmes Co. are descendants of Stephen Grantham. I have enclosed the MS. census data I have on your branch as well as the related tax lists. I have searched most of the southern states from 1790 to 1850 in the census records if you have any questions about any of that.

I have enclosed some data on the Oswalt's. I also enclosed data on the Lovett's who married into the Oswalt line as the Watson's tie in with both lines. I don't know much about the Watson's but would guess that they are all kin since they are all found in the same area of Webster Co. with the Lovett's and Oswalt's. My line comes in here: John Tharp m. Bula Oswalt; Daniel B. Tharp m. Margaret Ellen Lovett; Walter Ezekial Tharp m. Bettie Lula Jester; Robert Earnest Tharp m. Leona Upchurch; Robert Earl Tharp m. Mary Ellen Cade (my parents). It is Robert Earnest (R.E.) Tharp and Leona Upchurch Tharp that donated the land for the church where you parents are buried.

I guess this about wraps up what I had to say. I look forward to hearing from you and receiving copies of your data. I hope the hurricane/tornado left yall undamaged. Elena really did a lot of damage on the Coast. Take care.

Sincerely,

Genevieve

Dear Nan,

Yesterday I met Walter Grantham of Denham Springs, LA at the MS. State Archives and we did some research. While I was there I decided to go through the old tax lists of Holmes and Carroll counties of MS. What I found was quite interesting! It made me look up your first letter to me for reference. You had sent me a sheet where Thomas Phillip Grantham stated that his grandfather was Thomas Jefferson Grantham and his great grandfather was Daniel Grantham. In addition to Thomas Jefferson, Daniel also had children named Howard, Ben or Benjamin, Daniel, and Richard. He also stated that Daniel Grantham settled in MS in 1861. We always discounted this last statement as Thomas Jefferson, Benjamin, and Howell were in MS. long before 1861. Now I'm not so sure we should not be paying more attention to all of this. It could be the father Daniel did not settle in MS. until many years after his boys. Thomas Jefferson Grantham's mother showed up in his household in 1850 but it is possible that she only was visiting since there is no other record of her.

These tax lists told me several things I did not know already.
(1) Thomas Jefferson Grantham did not go straight from Yazoo County to Carroll Co. Instead he lived in Holmes Co. for at least 2 years. (2) A Daniel Grantham shows up in 1834 Holmes Co. with Thomas, Benjamin, and Howell. Is he their brother or father? This Daniel is only found this one year. (3) Howell Grantham's death is narrowed down to 1846-1847 instead of 1846-1850. (4) Previously the only record we had of Richard Grantham, son of Thomas, is what we believe to be him on 1860 Choctaw Co. census as R.D. and on the 1880 Carroll Co. Now we have found an R.D. in 1848 and 1858 Holmes Co. (5) John Grantham, son of Thomas Jefferson Grantham, appears to have lived at least briefly in Holmes Co., MS in 1861 and 1863. (6) Who is the B.W. Grantham in 1835 Carroll Co.? Is this really just Thomas instead?

I just wanted to get this to you right away. I knew you would be as interested in the early Daniel Grantham as I was. Take care and keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Genevieve

NOTE: By 1790 there were 21 Grantham/Grantum heads of families in the U.S. (approximately 103 Grantham/Grantum's). Possible states of residency for these 21 families: Maine, New Hampshire, Vermont, Massachusetts, Rhode Island, Connecticut,
New York, Pennsylvania, Maryland, Virginia, North Carolina, and South Carolina. Theoretically, any of these 21 could be the father of our line since Thomas may not have been born when the 1790 census was taken. I have researched the last 3 states. Virginia has 2 families, South Carolina has none, North Carolina has 10 Grantham's and 6 Grantum's (and also 1 Granton). This leaves 3 families that I haven't looked for yet.

MESSAGE

I received your name from Patricia Davidson. I understand that you are working on the Grantham line and may have some connections here in MS. I have my line back to Howell Grantham who was born 1790-1800; died 1846-50 in Holmes Co., MS.; and was married about 1829 to Abeline "Apalmas" Gore, who was born 1812 in Ga. Howell had these children: Rufus; Charlotte; Alexander O.; Robert Armistead; Albert; Henry H.; Mary Caroline; and possible one more named Ann. Charlotte is my descendant and she married Enoch Tate.

I am interested in all branches of the Grantham family and would be happy to swap any Grantham information I have with you. If your branch is in MS. at one time, I might be able to look up data for you. Unfortunately most of the early (pre-Civil War) data for a number of the counties in MS. that the Grantham's lived in have since burned.

Take care. I have enclosed a SASE for your convenience in replying.

Dear Genevieve:

I was happy to get your letter - there seem to be so few Grantham researchers. I hope I have found a tie between yours and mine, but it is just a guess.

The 1840 Mississippi census lists a Howell and Benjamin Grantham in Jones County, page 254. My Grantham History (enclosed) lists a Howard and Benjamin as sons of Daniel Sr. It seems probable that this Howard should be Howell-an easy mistake to make. I have not seen another Howard Grantham anywhere. Also, they are all in the same age bracket. Richard, John, Daniel, and D. Grantham Sr. are in Perry Co., listed on the same page. Surely this is my Daniel Grantham Sr. and some of his sons. Let me know what you think. I do not have access to the 1840 MS census here, so have not been able to check further.

- FOLD

I have the military pension record of Richard Grantham, DAK Patriot which is very complete, if you would like copies.

Sincerely,

Richard Grantham, American Revolution: I have the complete military, and pension record from Washington, DC. But he is not our line.
Probably related in some way. He served two enlistments - one for a Joshua Grantham who had a large family (he was single at the time).

We are told that Jane Wolfe's father served in the Revolution but I have nothing on him. The following are DAR Patriots:

WOLFE, Anthony, 1755-1810; enlisted Conn. Militia; b. Groton; d. Mystic,

From the History of Carroll Co., MS, by Hamilton: The Grantham brothers Evan, John, and Dan, and a sister came from North Carolina and lived a few years near Duck Hill. Evan Grantham married a widowed daughter-in-law of Richard Eskridge, and bought a farm near Bluff Springs and operated it until his death. His widow only lived a few years after his death. John Grantham married Miss Eskridge and lived west of Duck Hill for several years. Dan Grantham married a daughter of Thomas Ely and made his home near that of her father.

CHAPTER VII

LOUIS HERRING, SON OF JOHN HERRING

LOUIS HERRING, son of John Herring of North Carolina, Robeson County, was born in that county. He moved to Mississippi before the Civil War and located on a farm some six miles or more south of Kilmichael in what is now Montgomery County. The place is not far from Poplar Creek in the same county. Here he raised a pretty large family; but sometime around 1855, perhaps earlier, he moved to Yell County, Arkansas, and settled a place on what is now Highway 80. It lies on the south side of the highway, about 15 to 18 miles out of Danville, the county seat of Yell County. The place was an original grant from the State of Arkansas and the description is designated as Swamp Land Certificate No. 1650 for S1/2 of N. W. 1/4 Section 17, all in Township 4 north of Base line in Range 24 west of 5th Principal Meridian. With S1/2 of N. W. 1/4 of Sec. 20 in the same township, he had a total of 80 acres. This grant was dated May 28, 1860, so Louis must have arrived in Yell County at least before that date. He was still in Mississippi in 1851, because he married his second wife in Carroll County in that year. The record shows he married Elizabeth Harrell on December 13, 1851. Louis died on his home place in 1861 or 1862 and was buried in a cemetery nearby. There was once a Herring Cemetery right near his home and on opposite side of the present Highway 80, and he probably was buried there. However, I could not find his grave as most of the early graves were marked by only a stone marker. There is another cemetery in the vicinity, but here again I could find no sure evidence. I saw a copy of the abstract on the old home place in the hands of the man who lives there at the present time, 1965.

Louis Herring's first marriage was to Amanda Miller, and it was probably in Robeson County, N. C., though it might have been in Miss. Our information is that he reared his children on the old home place in Montgomery County, which of course would not preclude an early birth or two in North Carolina. At any rate, he had eight children: (1) Julia; (2) Elizabeth; (3) John Puny; (4) Brian; (5) Absalom White; (6) Benjamin Timmius; (7) Mary; and (8) Kitty (or Katy).

Louis Herring's First Child

JULIA HERRING was born to the couple and she died very young. We do not have the date of her birth, but are placing it first.

CHAPTER VIII

THE GRANTHAMS

Louis Herring's Second Child

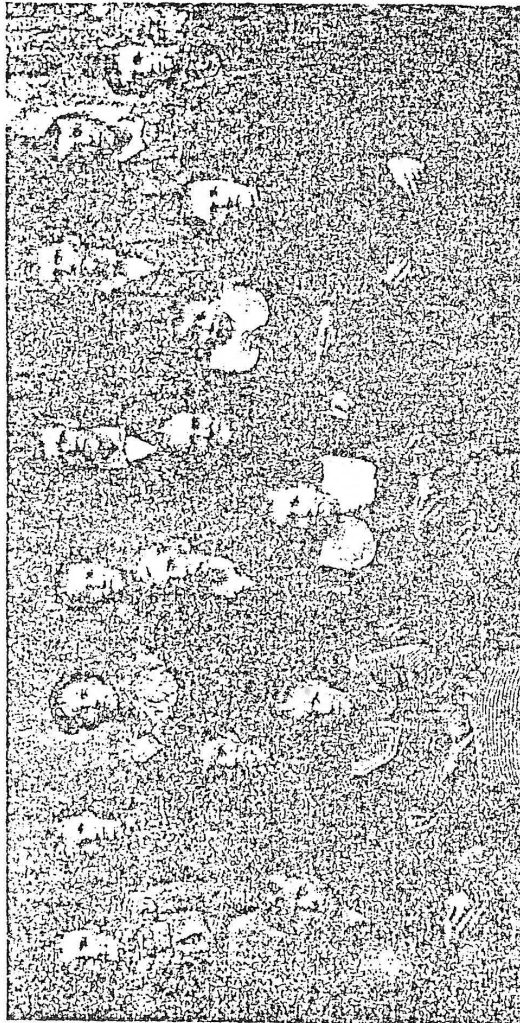

ELIZABETH FRANCIS (HERRING) GRANTHAM, born February 11, 1831. She married Andrew Jackson "Jack" Grantham on May 6, 1849, probably at Carrollton, Carroll County, Miss., where they got their marriage license. Jack came to Texas in 1876 or 1877, and bought 300 acres of land in Loving's Valley, De Pinto County. He went back to Montgomery County, Miss., and got Elizabeth and his little brood of thirteen children and returned to Loving's Valley, arriving at his home place on Christmas day, 1877. He lived there the rest of his life; he died on October 1, 1911. He lived a few years of his old age with his son, C. W. B. Grantham. Elizabeth died November 13, 1911 and was buried beside her husband in the Grantham Cemetery that he had donated to the community years before.

Their son, Daniel Winesbury Grantham was the first white person to be buried there. However, some Indian graves had been made there before. Jack's brother, Charles "Doc" Grantham, married Sally Herring, daughter of Frosty Herring, who was an uncle of Elizabeth. They moved to Arkansas.

Elizabeth's brothers, William (Puny), Brian, Benjamin and another kin, Will Montgomery, came with her and her husband when they came to Texas. They all landed in the Loving's Valley or nearby and most of them made their homes there for the rest of their lives.

Elizabeth and Jack Grantham had thirteen children:

- (1) Lewis Lycurgus; (2) John Darwin; (3) Charles William Boyd;
- (4) Daniel Winesbury; (5) Andrew (Andy) Jackson; (6) Susan Jane;
- (7) Benjamin Franklin; (8) George Washington; (9) Absalom (App);
- (10) Mary Sybil; (11) Bettye Pearl; (12) Giles; and (13) Jesse.

Elizabeth and Jack Grantham's First Child
LEWIS LYCURGUS GRANTHAM was the first child of Elizabeth (Herring) Grantham and Andrew Jackson (Jack) Grantham. Lycurgus (Curg) was born in Montgomery County, Miss., January 14, 1852, near Winona, on a farm. He married Isabella Francis Shirley on December 26, 1873. She was the daughter of Henry Tillman Shirley of Salesville, Palo Pinto County, Texas. Tillman was brother of Nancy Matilda Shirley who married the author's grandfather, Nathan King. Isabella and Curg lived in Mississippi for some years (Tillman Shirley did too) and finally they came to Texas about 1877, after the birth of three of their children. They later settled on a farm near Adell, Texas in Parker County and remained there on the same farm until he died in 1903, April 2. She died on August 7, 1922. They are buried at Adell or at Rock Creek Church in rural Parker County. When this couple first came to Texas, they came to Hood County; soon thereafter to Salesville, Palo Pinto County where they remained for two years. Then, in the fall of 1879, they moved to near Peaster in Parker County, and finally, in 1884, to 1-1/2 miles north of Adell as a permanent home. They had 16 children: (1) Infant girl born and died somewhere among their children; (2) Ida Lenora; (3) Edna Olivia; (4) Fillman Festus; (5) Andrew Timothy (Tim); (6) Ara Belle; (7) Mary Eudora; (8) Lula Edity; (9) Sarah Elizabeth (Essie); (10) Erasmus (Ras); (11) Priestly Shirley (Buck); (12) Infant boy, died young; (13) Emery Lycurgus; (14) John William; (15) Cornelia; and (16) Travis.

IDA LENORA GRANTHAM was born January 21, 1874 at Corinth, Mississippi. On August 8, 1898, she married William (Bill) White at Weatherford, Texas, and they lived in that region for years. He died in 1942 and is buried at or near Weatherford. They had four children. They were:

Mary Esther White, born September 5, 1901 at Peaster, Texas. She married Robert (Bob) H. Stephenson on July 12, 1930. He was born March 14, 1895. This couple lives at this time at 3536 Stuwat Drive, Ft. Worth, Texas. They had one child, Roy Harold Stephenson, born March 21, 1907. He married Goby Weisner, in Munich, Germany, I believe, in December, 1963. (Robert H. was born in Athens, Tennessee.) Roy and Goby had one child, David Earl, born in Germany, I believe.

Ida Lenora White's second child was Frances Afton White, born November 24, 1904 at Peaster. She married Roland Walker Perry at Lipan, Texas, on March 25, 1925. He was born in 1901

Dear Dorothy,

Howard Grantham of Silsbee, TX gave me your address. I have been working on my Grantham line which I believe came from Ga. I have corresponded with Walter Grantham of Denham Springs, LA who thinks my line ties in with Richard Grantham of N.C., but I think I may tie in somewhere and somehow with Natham, also of N.C. but who migrated on to GA. after his children had already settled there.

My line is back to three brothers: Howell Grantham (b. 1790-1800, d. 1846-1850, m. Apalmas Gore who was b. 1812 in Ga.); Benjamin Grantham (b. 6 Mar 1800 N.C., d. 11 June 1844 Holmes Co., MS., m. Sarah Graham 5 Jan 1826 Marion Co., MS); and Thomas Jefferson Grantham (b. 1790-1792 N.C. The 1st 2 brothers finally settled in Holmes Co., MS. and the latter one in Carroll Co. and Choctaw Co. Howell is my ancestor. The descendants of Thomas Jefferson have always been told that Thomas' father was Daniel. The mother of Thomas Jefferson appears in his household in 1850 Carroll Co. as an 80 year old born in N.C. Thomas Jefferson was found in MS. as early as 1818 Greene Co. and 1820 Perry Co. with a Matthew Grantham who appears to be old enough to be Thomas' father or uncle. Presumably Matthew died in Perry Co. between 1823 and 1825. Thomas left Perry Co. sometime between 1827 and 1828 with all three brothers showing up together in 1830 Yazoo Co. Descendants of Richard had settled in Perry Co. by 1825, but if Thomas had been a direct descendant of Richard, I don't think he would have left his father for another part of the state. I think he may be kin someway to Richard, but not as his son! (The mother of Thomas above was named Elizabeth.)

I have found what I believe to be the Matthew above in Ga. and I suspect that he might be a brother to Lewis Grantham of 1816 Marion Co., MS. Anyway, a Matthew appeared as a landowner in 1793 Wilkes Co. and 1794 and 1805 Warren Co., GA., but in 1818 the Grantham taxes on the land were paid by others. In 1805 Hancock Co., Ga. there was a Daniel (son of Nathan) and a William Grantham. In 1812 Hancock Co., William is still listed and also mentions his land in Wilkes Co. In 1818 Pulaski Co., Ga. there were Benjamin and Elias Grantham.

Another point that might be significant. In a Pike/Walthall Co. book I found mention of the War of 1812 soldiers Daniel and Matthew Grantham. When I looked up their records they were living in Marion Co. (descendants that tie in with Howard Grantham of TX). Also in the same book I found a Nathan Grantham who married Sarah Albritton in 1835 and her family was from GA and LA. This Nathan moved on to Ark.

Let me know if you can shed any light onto this all. I am interested in all Grantham lines.

Dear Paul,

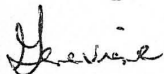

Thanks for your letter. Yes, I would love to have a copy of the bounty land warrants for Matthew and Daniel Grantham. I have enclosed what I copied out of the Archives on their War of 1812 service.

No, I do not think Matthew and Daniel are brothers of Thomas Jefferson, Howell, and Benjamin Grantham. Right now I am leaning toward those two being sons of Lewis Grantham. We find Howell and Benjamin on a tax list with Matthew and Daniel for 1827 Marion Co., MS but that is the only time they appear tied together. In the same year in Perry Co., MS Thomas Jefferson appeared with the older Matthew.

This all goes back to us needing to research early Lawrence and Jackson counties. In 1816 Ignatius Grantham, son of John, was living in Jackson Co. and John Jr. and Sr. were both living in Lawrence Co. By the 1820 census there appear to be no Grantham's still in Lawrence Co. though Ignatius was still in Jackson. With our lines in Perry Co., etc. down in the same general location, we need to look for a connection that way. These people could have been uncles, etc. to our line.

Let me know how much I owe you for the photocopies of the bounty land grants. Take care and keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Mr. Paul L. Kines
9818 Edgecliffe Dr.
Pascagoula, MS 39567-9457

Dear Paul,

This is just a quick letter to answer your Daniel Grantham questions. Supposedly a Daniel Grantham, father of Thomas Jefferson Grantham, did not come to MS. until 1861. We have always discounted this family story since the Grantham brothers supposedly sons of this man were in MS. much earlier. The information I sent you in my last letter is the first real clue I have had of a Daniel being in the same vicinity as our lines. I wasn't even trying really hard to find one after I had not been able to locate a Daniel I could connect with ours a number of years ago.

I have enclosed a copy of the 1850 Irwin Co., GA census records that I have abstracted since the copy at the Anderson Library was broken at that point on microfilm. The general thought among most family researcher is that these two are Daniel Sr. and Daniel Jr., the former being the son of Nathan (Rev. War). So far I have not been able to connect our line back to this one. One of Daniel Sr.'s grandsons was named Jefferson Grantham, but of course, the age is no where near ours.

Of course, you probably already know that the Benjamin Grantham in the 1826 Marion Co., MS marriage record is the brother of Thomas Jefferson Grantham. However, the last name of the bride was recorded wrong -- she is not Sarah Grantham but Sarah Graham, the daughter of Dugal Graham and Flora Scruggs. This can easily be proven by researching the probate records of Dugal Graham in Marion Co., MS.

Take care and keep in touch.

Sincerely,

Genevieve Tharp Little
